MR. CHARLES ISENBERG

OUR 1966 DEDICATION

We the senior class dedicate the 1966 Susquehannock to a man much more to us than a mere teacher—a friend. During those first, confusing days of high school, he showed complete understanding of our problems and a patience that defies comparison. Although we only had him as a teacher one year, we have never forgotten him or his friendship. Besides being a competent teacher, he was a successful coach—always stressing the necessity of “playing the game” honorably as well as winning.

We believe we are better people because we have associated with him, and we know the sound advice he has given us will help us tremendously as we go through life. Therefore, it is with sincere best wishes and gratitude that we dedicate this book to Mr. Charles Isenberg. May others gain as we have from knowing him.

ROW 1: F. Cummings, secretary; R. Romberger; R. Rissinger; A. Hoffman. ROW 2: W. E. Sheely; A. Shaffer; T. Miller; J. Armour; H. Knarr; C. Stockdale

Our board of education is charged with the responsibility of providing our young people with the best education possible. For these their endeavors we give our thanks.

MR. SHEELY

SUPERVISING PRINCIPAL

There is a great tendency on my part to attempt to recall how you looked and acted on that day in September when you first entered this your high school. Many changes have taken place since those days; you have grown physically and so have the facilities of your school. You are the first class to have had the complete use of the new addition of our high school. There can be no doubt about the physical changes in both you and your surroundings, but what about those other changes which have taken place in the past six years? What have you learned, what are your attitudes and what plans do you have for next year and the next, etc.? I would hope that these changes reflect the efforts of both pupil and teacher and that they have been beneficial.

Are you better able to compete with others of your age group in institutions of learning or in the world of making a living? Do you regard your fellowman with a consideration of his problems and with a better understanding? Do you feel able to regard your future with clarity? If you believe that because of the unseen changes which have taken place you are now more capable of answering the above questions in the affirmative, then there has been some of that growth and maturity which Kipling describes in these words, "You'll be a man, my son, you'll be a man."

My wish for you is that you will continue to mature and be a credit to yourselves and to your school.

CAMPUS SHOTS

OUR GAL

JENNY RAMOS

Marie Eugenia Ramos-Guzmon, our first AFS Student, arrived from Guatemala City, Guatemala, on August 27, 1965, to spend this school year with us. Jenny, as she is commonly called, lived with Mr. and Mrs. Harris Sheetz on Market Street.

She gave many talks and presented slides about her native land to local clubs.

We extend our thanks to the American Field Service and the Student Council for their support in this project, which helped to create a better understanding between us and our foreign neighbors.

US KIDS GANG OF '66

Who says blonds have more fun?

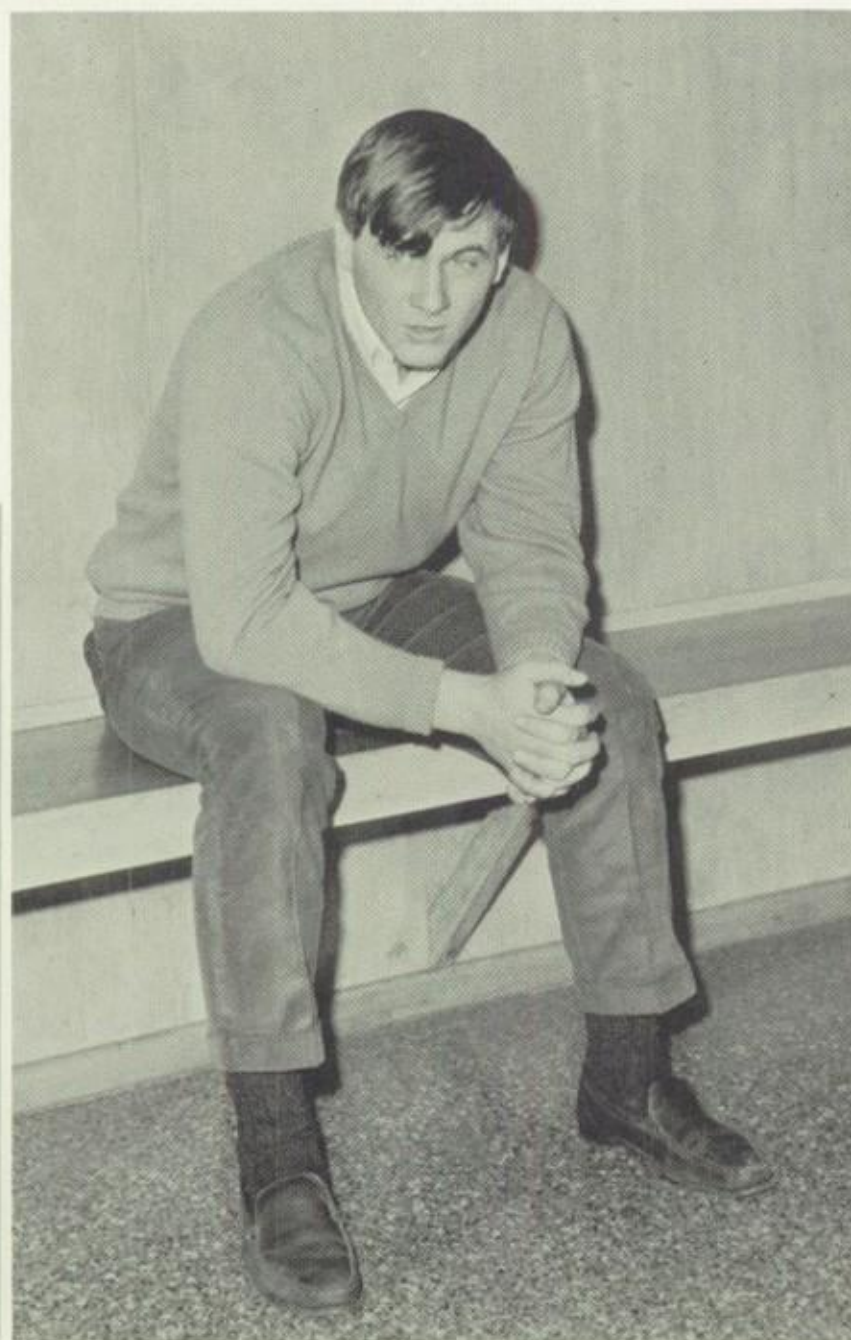

This, people, is a saw.

A mile around the school.

No Comment.

Do you think they forgot about me?

And the groom wore jeans.

Now I lay me down to sleep.

HERE WE STAND . . .

Here we stand, fearless and brave, waiting for our call. As never before, we realize that the world needs us as women and men. We will never be one great, big, happy group, just as we can never be "just kids" again. We will become the strength of our nation, the crusaders for freedom, the champions of democracy, the enemies of communism, and the leaders of the world. We do not need someone to spur us on. And as our forces grow stronger, day by day, we will work and show the world that we are right.

We've heard of Da Nang, Plei Me, and the Ia Drang Valley; therefore, we'll not let dictators rule a freedom loving people, who have entrusted their future to we who care.

We know the need, so we'll keep the wheels turning. Our work won't be spoiled by absenteeism or sabotage. We'll create a new world where the banner of peace will forever reign. Give us time and we'll show the world that peace is here for the taking. All that is needed is faith, work, and an honest attempt to understand each other.

Queen of the road!

Wow! Look at the size of those Easter Eggs!

Where's your beard, Mitch?

CANDIDS

The doorway to life.

Did you read the scandal sheet for the day?

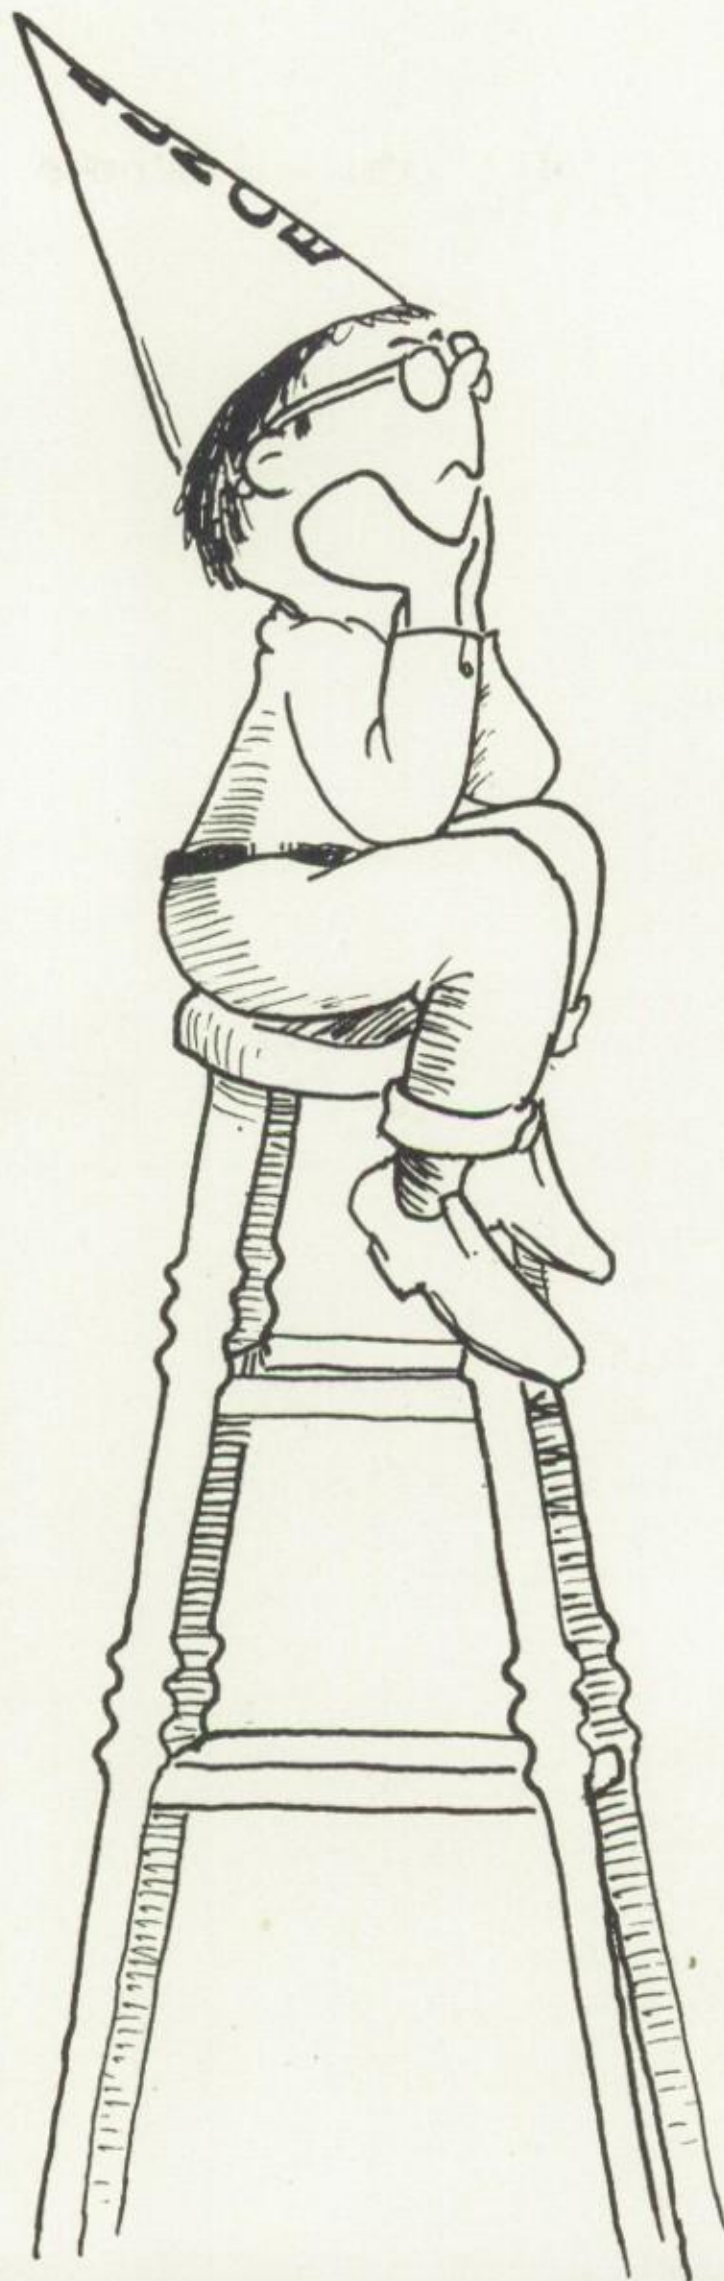

Ban takes the worry out of being close.

Pfsstt!!

They gave me three hours detention for chewing gum.

THE SUSQUEHANNOCK

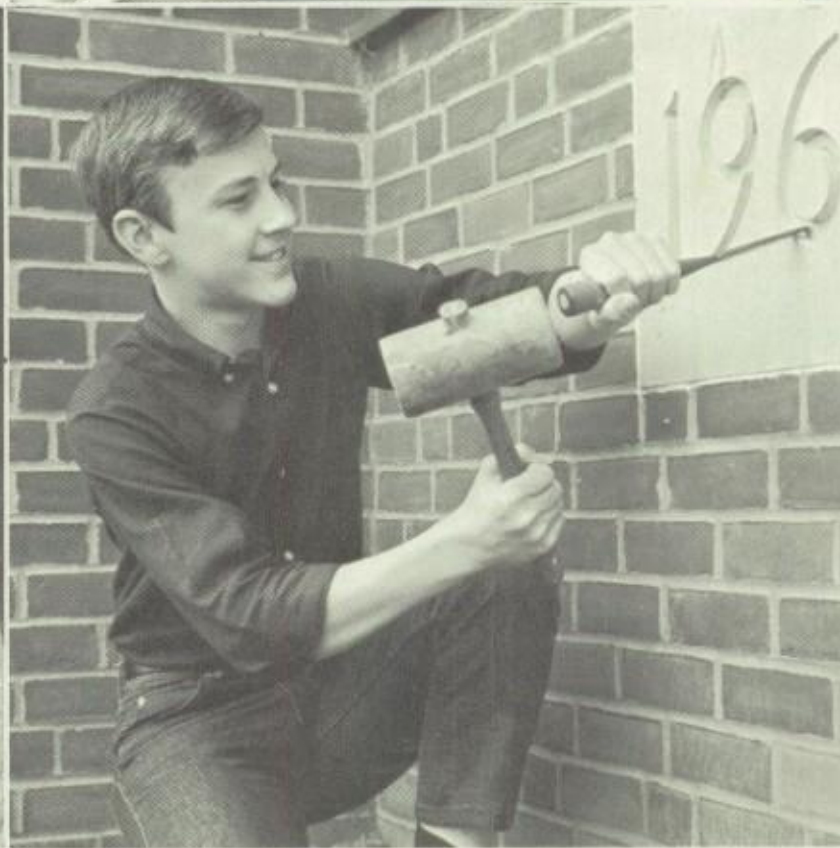

THE STAFF

The Susquehannock is a partial record of events and achievements at Millersburg High School as kept by the students. The over-all record could not possibly be presented in its entirety on 128 pages, but each page may be regarded as a segment of school activity. We hope this yearbook will help to keep alive the memories gathered during the year of 1965-66.

TATLER

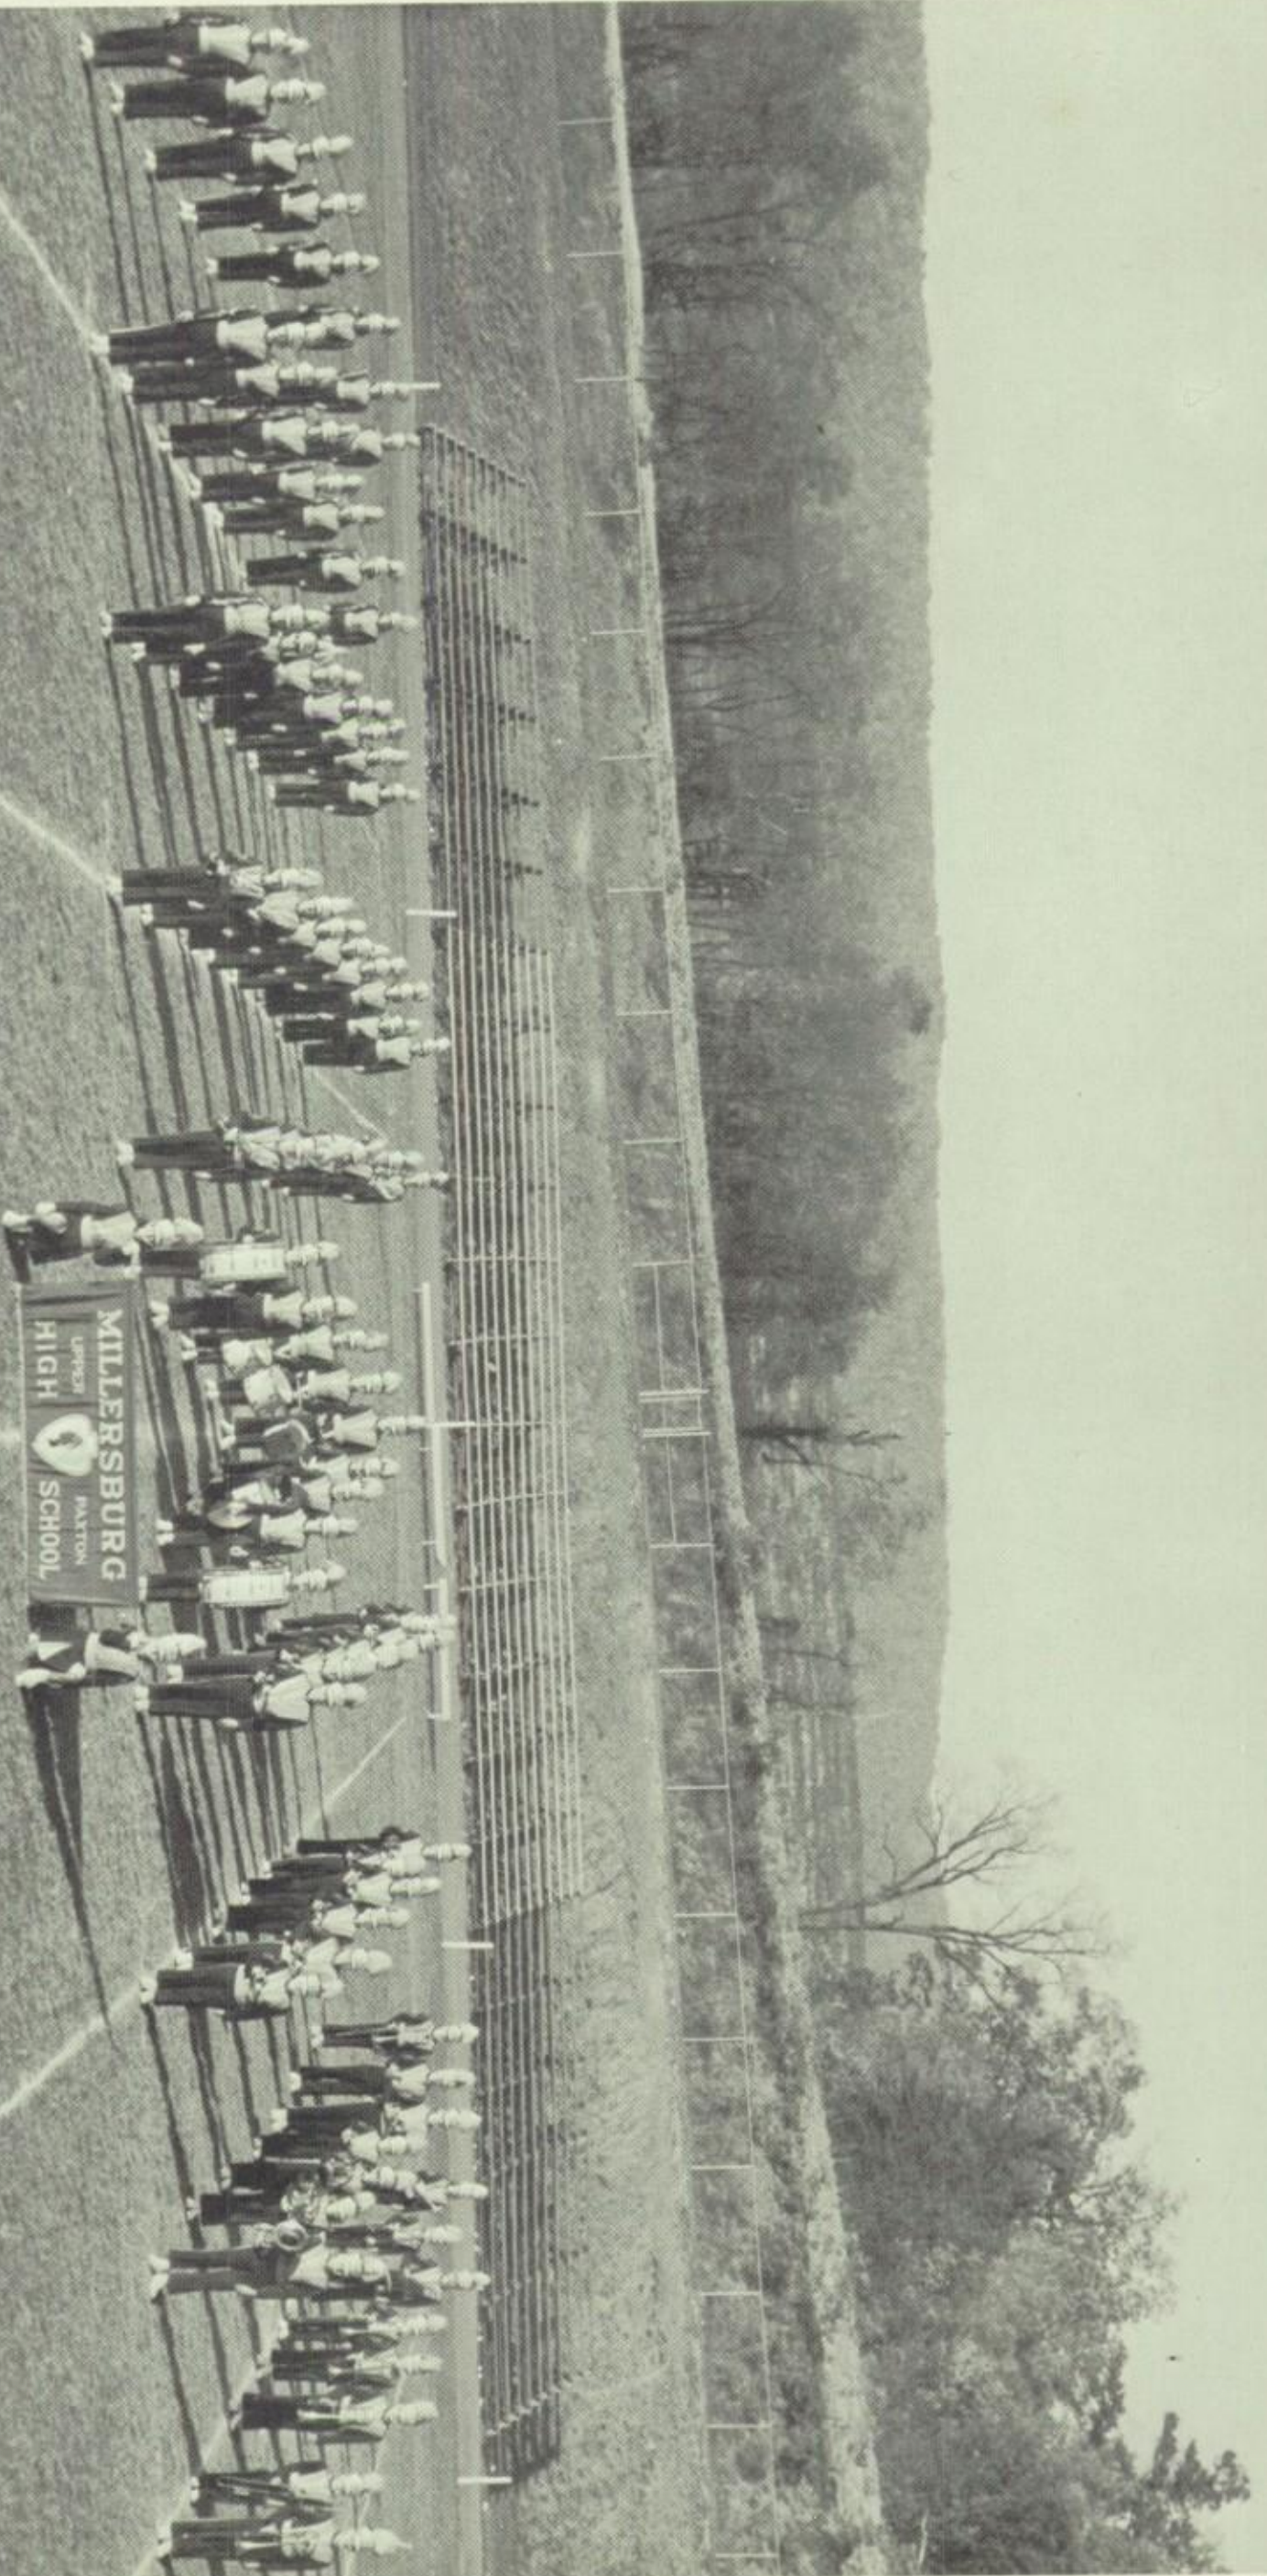

THE STAFF

Tatler

Although the Tatler is not on the same level as perhaps the Times, it does do an excellent job of relating to our student body the latest campus news with both informative and abstract articles. We of the Susquehannock would like to congratulate you on a job well done.

SENIORS

Great ability, a strong desire to win, and much hard work were combined to make a winning season for our girls. Congratulations Champs!

BOYS BASKETBALL

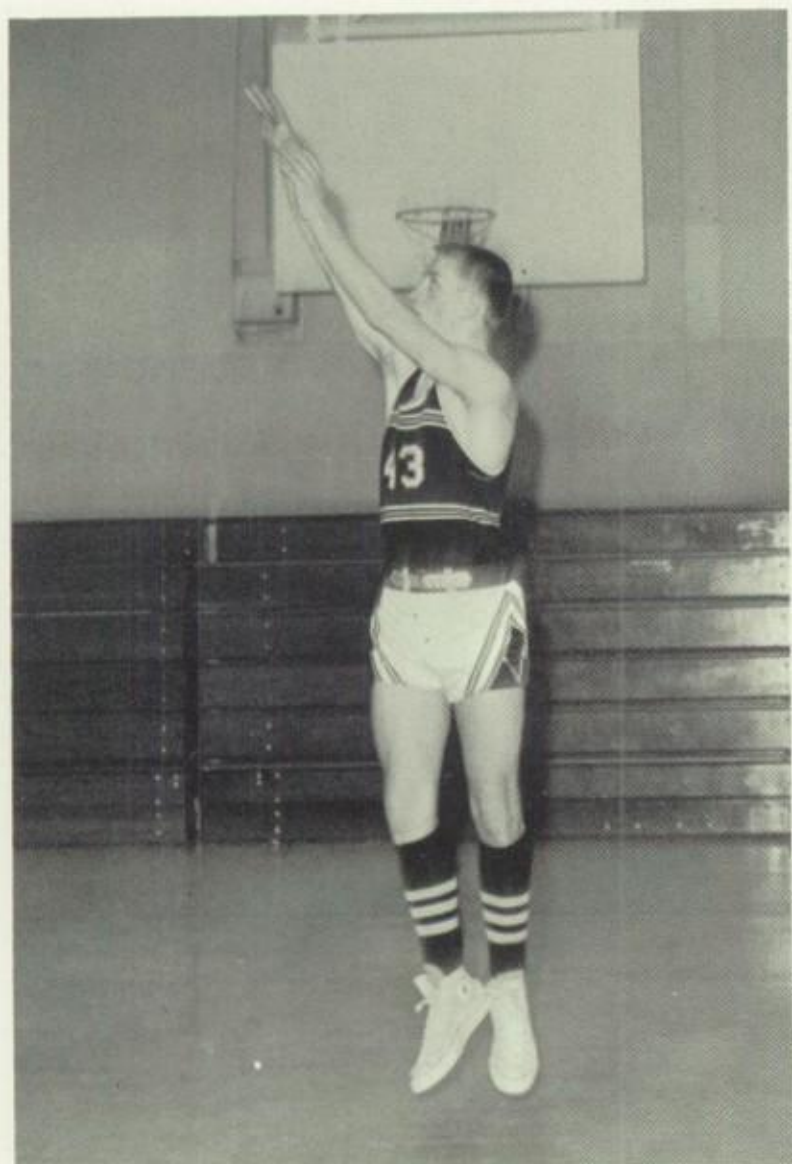

ROW 1: S. Daniels, J. Daniels, M. Gelnett, K. Rothermel; ROW 2. R. James—Manager, J. Miller, D. Fralick, D. Witmer, S. Williams, T. Burrows, D. Witmer—Manager.

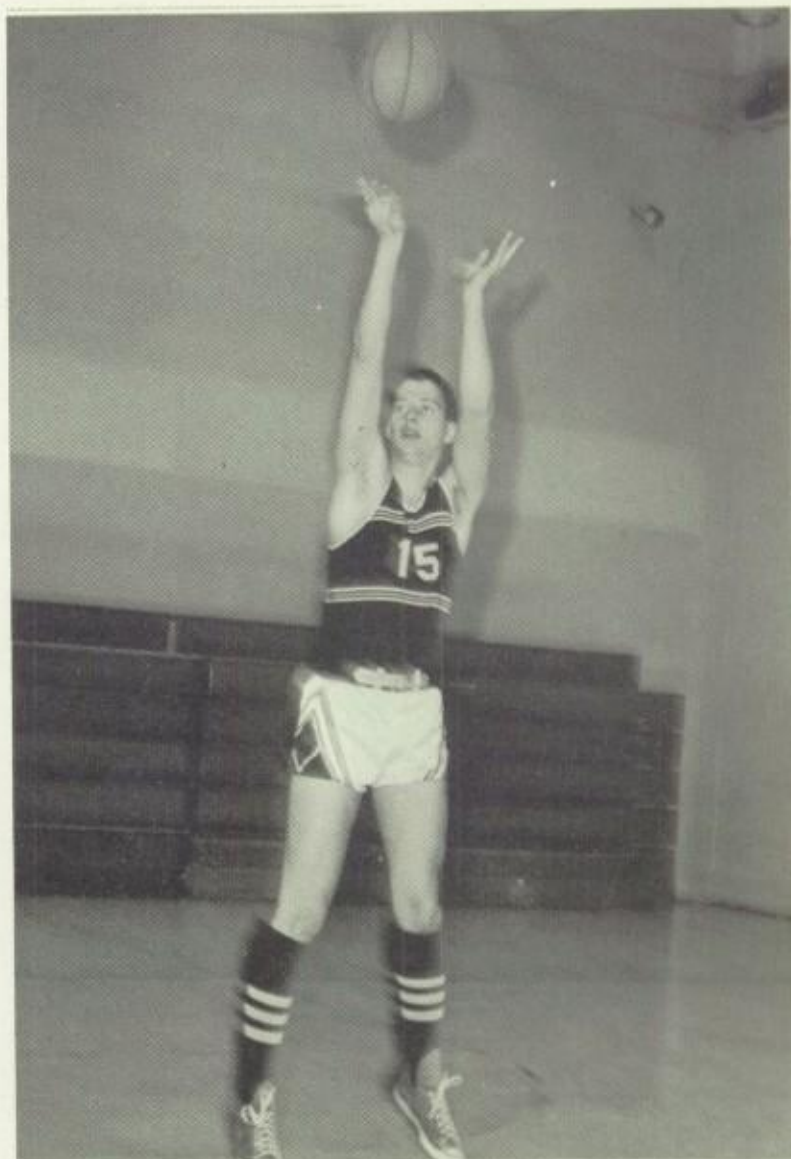

The 1965-66 Millersburg Indians basketball squads, coached by Mr. Manning, gave their spectators some real thrills this year with some really close ball games. The three seniors, four juniors, and two sophomores on the team went into the season under a handicap of inexperience and poor turnout. Despite these setbacks our boys played well and gained much experience this season.

Basketball spelled out success for the MHS Junior Varsity Indians this year. The J.V. boys worked hard and came up with many well-earned wins. We hope Mr. Sitlinger and his team of hard-working boys will be returning next year to again bring victory to MHS.

THE END — OR THE BEGINNING

A cap, a suitcase—the symbols of a senior. The cap is a reminder of the past—the suitcase, our companion in the future. For the past twelve years we have been guided and instructed; now it is our responsibility to use our knowledge intelligently. Our years ahead hold nothing but the best if everyday we undauntedly say: "And now tomorrow."
